GENERAL DESPATCHES.

HOW CAPTAIN ... CEIVED HIS ... RNEY RE- ... ENCE.

John F. Swift's Remains ... Francisco from Japan ... ve at San Orient by the Belgic—T... from the a Seat in England. ... rals Win

WASHINGTON, May 7.—T... growing impression here that a re... sult of the negotiations now bei... ducted by Mr. Blaine and Sir ...n Pauncefote there will be a closed ... ing season this year in Behring ... No definite agreement is likely to ... reached or announced until after t... return of the President, on May 14 o... 15. But the drift of opinion has set strongly in the direction of a convention between this government and Great Britain which will suspend the taking of seals for the current year. Any agreement made, however, will undoubtedly stipulate for the killing of enough seals during the summer to maintain the natives of the two islands who depend absolutely upon annual sealing for their support.

English Money Helps the Insurgents.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 7.—Senor F. Cassanova, a former Chilian consul, said yesterday: "It will be found that British money is the mainstay of the insurgents against our government. The British want to obtain control of the nitrate deposits and President Balmaceda wishes them to be worked for the benefit of Chili." This statement is probably correct so far as the supply of money is concerned, as advices received from San Diego yesterday are to the effect that the money used to purchase coal and provisions by the captain of the Itata was obtained from a local bank on presentation of letters of credit on a London firm. These documents were issued by the Bank of London and Tarapaca, a limited institution in which Col. North, the "Nitrate King" is the principal stockholder.

Ammunition for Rebels.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 7.—Senator Trumbull of Chili, who is in the city, claims to have the best of legal advice to the effect that the proposed transfer of arms from the Robert and Minnie is not a violation of the neutrality provisions, even if it took place at an American dock. The owners of the schooner are becoming so alarmed over the situation that they desire to back out of their charter, but Trumbull has settled this difficulty by furnishing an indemnity bond for her value in event of seizure and confiscation. He now makes no secret of the fact that he is engaged in doing his utmost to start the Robert and Minnie's cargo toward the rebels.

All Over a School Election.

LEADVILLE, Colo., May 5.—One of the most exciting school election contests that ever occurred in this state took place here yesterday. The Patriotic sons of America and the Catholics took opposite sides in the fight. The outcome of the election is yet in doubt. The floor in the main building where the polling booth was located sank six inches and created a panic. No one was injured. Deputy Sheriff John Burns attempted to arrest a man named Ragland, who was creating a disturbance. Ragland resisted arrest, and, drawing a revolver, fired twice, instantly killing Burns.

Capt. Verney's Trial.

LONDON, May 7.—During the progress of the trial of Verney the court room was crowded with spectators, many of whom were friends of the prisoner. On being arraigned Capt. Verney's face was pale and white and his manner extremely downcast. He however pleaded in a firm voice. In passing sentence the recorder took occasion to say that he had arrived at the conclusion that the crime for the commission of which he was then passing sentence upon the prisoner was not the only one of the kind in which he had been implicated.

Only One Still in It.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 6.—At noon today Wm. Woodford, a sailor, was the only man still awake of the 19 who entered the will power versus sleep contest, the seventh day of which commences at seven o'clock to-night. Woodford is very weak and at times acts like a lunatic. It is only the constant efforts of his attendant that keeps him awake.

The Anti-Sleep Contest.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 7.—At 6 o'clock this morning Woodford, the only remaining contestant in the will power vs. sleep contest, was still awake and in good health, and confident of holding out until 7 o'clock to-night, thus completing 7 days and winning the match.

Woodford gave out at a quarter to 10, having kept awake 158¾ hours.

Liberals Successful.

LONDON, May 7.—The election held yesterday for a member of the House of Commons for Stowmarket on the northwest division of Suffolk resulted in the choice of Baron Stern, Liberal, who received 4846 votes against 4182 for his Conservative opponent Mr. Greene.

Americans Ill Treated.

ROME, May 7.—While Wm. Jacques, an American from Newton, Mass., was driving with his daughter Florence yesterday his carriage was pursued by a mob, who attacked it and pelted it with stones. His daughter, who interfered in his behalf, was injured.

Swift's Remains.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 7.—The steamer Belgic, conveying the remains of the late Minister to Japan, John F. Swift, arrived from Hongkong and Yokohama at 6:30 this morning.

The new Japanese man-of-war Chiyodakan has arrived at Yokohama from Newcastle, where she was constructed.

Workmen engaged in the antimony mines in Ehime, Japan, recently struck on account of a reduction of wages. A number of men appeared before the office bent on violence. The foreman of the works was attacked and dynamite thrown into the office. The police interfered and the riot quelled.

NANAIMO NEWS.

Hospital to be Enlarged—New Buildings—Poor Crop Outlook.

NANAIMO, May 7.—At the regular hospital meeting held on Tuesday evening, a proposition was submitted to the trustees to enlarge the present building, so that part of it could be utilized as a female ward instead of building a new wing. The funds which have been collected for the latter will be used to defray the expenses. It is the intention of the trustees to erect another story over a portion of this building, and a kitchen will be erected at the back of premises, while the room now used as the kitchen will be the female ward. When the latter is occupied a nurse will be engaged, but will not be kept on a yearly salary as the expense would be too great. It is expected the enlargement of the present building will incur an expenditure of about $3000 before it is completed.

ANOTHER NEW BRICK BUILDING.

The citizens of Nanaimo are gradually turning their attention to the erection of Brick buildings instead of the frame structures that have so long been adopted. In this respect Victoria crescent (which is the principal business street) may be said to have undertaken a rapid change. About twelve months ago only one brick building adorned this part of the city, now there are three, and with a prospect of four more going up. Mr. J. Davidson contemplates putting up a large brick building and just opposite his lot there is every probability of another going up, while at the other end the fire department will shortly commence the erection of their brick building, and the members of the Co-operative Society will do the same.

GLOOMY PROSPECTS FOR CROPS.

The farmers in Cedar district have given up all hopes of reaping a prosperous harvest this year, and one of them during a conversation to-day said: "I will be satisfied if I can get enough potatoes and hay to do me the winter." The soil is almost inundated, and unless the rain ceases none of the present crops will be saved. The same reports reach Nanaimo from various parts of the suburbs, especially Englishman's River and French Creek. The price of butter has advanced to about 40 cents per pound and good flour is scarce. The latter is due to the non-arrival of a large shipment over the C.P.R. In fact all produce promises to command a high figure during the coming summer.

THE WRONG LABELS.

It appears the labels on the powder kegs of the Hamilton Powder Company is the constant theme of discussion among the miners of this city. The labels in question, lead a stranger to believe that the powder is manufactured in Victoria, instead of close to Nanaimo, so that this city (according to the miner's) does not receive the benefit of the advertising as she should do. A few weeks ago one of the members of the Board of Trade was spoken to in reference to the matter, and he gave it as his opinion, that the company were using all the old kegs which, when exhausted, new ones would be used in their place and the correct label attached to them. It is probable the matter will be brought before the Board of Trade at their next meeting.

LITTLE HAPPENINGS.

Another sensation is about to explode in this city, but the nature of it so far remains a secret, and it is probable it will first be made know in Victoria.

An agitation is said to be on foot to obtain a volunteer battery for the protection of Nanaimo.

There were seven applications for hospital nurse, which was awarded to Richard Gilbert.

THE TRACK IS DRY.

In spite of the bad weather of the last few days, the track at the Victoria Driving Park is in fairly good condition and if the fine weather continues until to-morrow it will be fast. The horses are all in good trim, so that good time will be made. The races to be held tomorrow and Saturday, it is to be understood are altogether distinct from the ones that were to be held last week, so that all bets made on last week's races are off.

BASEBALL.

CHILDS WINS.

Judge Phelps, on April 21, at Baltimore, decided the Childs controversy in favor of Childs and against the Baltimore Club, of the American Association. The injunction restraining Childs from playing with the Cleveland Club, of the National League, is dissolved upon the ground that Childs' contract had been altered without his consent by the withdrawal of the American Association from the National Agreement, to the protection of which Childs was entitled under his contract. The court finds that the charges made by Childs of misrepresentation by Manager Barnie, of the Baltimore Club, were unsustained by proof. The club is left to its remedy at law, having lost its relief in equity. President Vonderhorst, of the Baltimore Club, said he did not care for the loss of Childs, but thought the precedent would be dangerous, and that the players known as "contract jumpers" would take advantage of the decision to cause endless litigation and trouble to the managers, although none of those who have signed regulation contracts will be able to evade them. Mr. Vonderhorst will not take the case to the Court of Appeals, as the club is not anxious for Childs' services. The suit was only brought to let players see that the club would hold them to their contracts. Manager Barnie said he was not surprised at the decision. He had anticipated it from the beginning. He said further that there would be no changes in the club at present.

THE RING.

NEWS OF THE SLUGGERS.

Jimmy Carroll has received a letter from Johnny Griffin, who recently fought Weir. Griffin says he wants Carroll to meet young Griffo or Billy Murphy, if they arrive on the next steamer, and challenge them for him. Griffin is ready to fight any featherweight in the world, and thinks he should be recognized after his showing with Weir.

Reports from Jackson's quarters are that he is covering 12 miles a day at an easy gait and punches the bag for another hour. His ankle is still sore, but not to such an extent as to prevent his training. Yet he feels some pain there whenever he does too much work.

WILL FIGHT IN SYDNEY.

The Sydney (N.S.W.) Athletic Club have offered a purse of $5500 for another glove fight between Joe Goddard and Peter Jackson. Both men have accepted the terms, and Jackson will return to the land of the bush to keep the engagement whether he whips Jim Corbett or not. He has the privilege of setting the date himself, and he is anxious to retrieve the reputation he lost when Goddard made a draw with him, and, indeed, came near defeating the black. Jackson claims that on that occasion he held Joe to cheap, and did not train an hour for the fight—a mistake that he will not make a second time.

CYCLING.

A meeting of the Island Wanderers Bicycle club will take place this evening in the Hamilton Powder company's office to arrange for the reception of visiting wheelmen and other preliminaries regarding the coming tournament. There is talk of getting up a club five-mile race.

A meeting held at Vancouver for the purpose of organizing a cycling club resulted in the election of the following officers:

Hon. President, F. C. Cotton; President, Morris Guiltyburger; Vice-President, R. J. Hamilton; Secretary, A. E. Nicolls; Treasurer, Charles Phillips; Captain, G. S. Mason; Lieutenant, H. E. Leslie; Buglar, T. Bradshaw; Management Committee, Messrs. J. Lawrenson, Jas. Fagan, H. McIntyre, E. C. Taylor, J. Brown.

AQUATICS.

Billy Watts, of Vancouver, is now practising hard, and will be in fine form for the race at Victoria. He will shortly commence work on a boat for the race, which will, if possible, excel the boat he used last year.

OTTAWA NEWS.

Delegates Asking for Reduction of Duties on Raw Sugar, Chemicals, &c.

Special to the TIMES.]

OTTAWA, Ont., May 6.—The city is full of delegations. Sugar refineries want the duty taken off raw sugar and a corresponding amount added to the refined article. Leather manufacturers desire the duty taken off certain chemicals used in tanning. Tobacconists ask for the reduction of duty on tobacco, and shipowners and others interested in the cattle export trade interviewed Messrs. Carling and Tupper regarding the bill to be introduced this session. Shipowners and cattle owners cannot agree as to the size of cattle stalls on boats.

When the House meets another batch of petitions for prohibition and against the importation of Chinese will be received.

The House adjourned at 4:15 until Monday.

Senator Haythorne Dead.

Special to the TIMES.]

OTTAWA, May 7.—Senator Haythorne died at Grand Union at 7 o'clock this morning.

Senator Haythorne, who came of a well-known Bristol (Eng.) family of bankers and merchants, was born 2nd Dec., 1815, and emigated to P. E. Island in 1842, where he married Elizabeth Radcliffe, eldest daughter of Thomas Scott. He was a member of Cole's administration in 1867 and since then has played a prominent part in both Provincial and Dominion Liberal politics. He was made a senator in 1873.

THEIR USUAL ENTERPRISE.

The Union Pacific Will Thoroughly Advertise the Celebration.

M. J. Bissell, the rustling general agent of the Union Pacific Railway, has received a telegram from W. H. Herbert, the general passenger agent of his company, requesting him to immediately forward a programme of the 24th May celebration. Mr. Herbert says his company intends to have a large number of posters printed and distributed throughout Washington and Oregon. This will be one of the very best advertisements for the city and celebration that could possibly be obtained and the Union Pacific deserves the thanks of the city for their enterprise. The company will undoubtedly have the steamer Olympian running for the occasion, and there are bright prospects that the Victorian will be ready by that time to put on the route. As before stated, the fare for the round trip will be single.

The Puget Sound and Alaska Steamship Company intend to have their steamers, the City of Kingston and City of Seattle, on the route also, so that Victoria will have more visitors here this year than ever before.

BY ORDER OF BLAINE.

A Chilian Steamer Seized in San Diego Harbor.

SAN DIEGO, May 5.—This morning United States Marshal Gard seized the Chilian steamer Etata, now receiving supplies in the harbor, and placed Capt. Marrum under arrest. Telegrams have been passing between this city and the department at Washington City which brought the above results. Tug boats have left to seize the two boats seen outside, one of which is supposed to be the Robert and Minnie and the other a ship belonging to the insurgents, which have been hovering about the entrance to the harbor to receive the supplies taken on board the Etata. The war ship was first sighted about noon to-day passing north. Ten hours later she repassed the harbor, going south, lying to just north of Coronado island. Customs Officer Berry sent a party to investigate, who reported seeing a large vessel under steam, which they could not approach nearer than two miles, on account of her steaming away from them. Orders were received from Secretary Blaine to seize both vessels if found within the 12-mile limit, and both Marshall Gard and Collector Berry have gone out to-night in different tugs for that purpose. At midnight last night the Etata received 40 head of cattle, 25 head of sheep and 3000 pounds of dressed meat from a ferry boat. The vessel to-day has been receiving other stores, including 800 tons of coal from the Spreckles bunkers. As soon as all the provisions and fuel were on board she expected to leave the harbor and cruise between here and Calalina to meet the schooners Robert and Minnie, from which she was to take Remington rifles and ammunition. She was to sail this evening.

NEW YORK, May 5.—Regarding the statement that the transport Etata, now at San Diego, Cal., and said to be receiving arms for the revolutionists, was their vessel, Grace & Co. say it is not so. They were agents for the South American Steamship Company, which owned the Etata before she was seized by the insurgents. Since her seizure Grace had not had control of the vessel. From stories now current in this city it appears that two prominent commercial houses, both having very large interests in Chili, are furnishing arms, ammunition and money to the two factions, Balmaceda's forces and the revolutionists. The houses mentioned are opposed to each other commercially, and each is doing its utmost to have the faction it supports win. News was received by one firm yesterday from Buenos Ayres that its competitor had sent a lot of rifles and ammunition to aid Balmaceda's forces. Commercial house No. 2 has been charged by the other with sending arms and ammunition to the insurgents. The prize for which both houses are struggling is valuable concessions promised by the factions in the event of victory. It is stated here that the war is being kept going by the efforts of these two New York houses.

WASHINGTON, May 5.—The government of the United States has instructed Egan, the minister to Chili, to offer to mediate between the combatants in that country in the interests of peace and good order, and to proffer good offices for the perpetuity of Republican principles of government.

PARIS, May 5.—An official dispatch received from Chili says it is proposed that three members of the Congressional, or insurgent party, and three members of the Belmaceda, or presidential party, should be appointed to confer upon and discuss some arrangement which would bring peace to Chili. President Balmaceda has solicited the good offices of Brazil, the United States and France in an effort to restore peace in Chili. He has asked these countries to unite in any endeavors which they may make in this direction.

THE MAFIA GRAND JURY

Finally Makes a Report Exonerating the Lynchers.

NEW ORLEANS, La., May. 5.—The long delayed report of the grand jury in the Mafia murderers of Chief Hennessy and the lynching of the prisoners in the jail, was presented to Judge Marr this evening. The document is an extremely long one and goes over the facts leading up to the assassination of Hennessy. The report is particularly severe upon the methods of the O'Malley detective agency, which the jury declares to have been for a long time past in the business of bribery, corrupting courts and other misdealings. The grand jury declares that the result of its investigations proves conclusively that the unsatisfactory verdict in the cases of the members of the Mafia, charged with murdering Hennessy, was due entirely to the tampering with witnesses by O'Malley and his agents. In view of these facts indictments charging them with bribery are brought against D. C. O'Malley, John Mooney, Thomas M. Crystol, Bernard Baldi, Charles Granger and Ferdinand Clamant.

Of the lynching of the prisoners in the jail, the report of the grand jury says: "We have engaged ourselves almost assiduously with the examination of a large number of witnesses, embracing those who were present at the meeting in Canal street in the vicinity of the parish prison, as well as several hundred of our fellow-citizens taken from every rank and class of society. It is shown in the evidence that the gathering on Saturday morning, March 14, embraced several thousand of the best, best and even the most law-abiding of the citizens of this city, assembled as is the right of American citizens, to discuss in a public meeting questions of grave importance.

"We find a general sentiment among the witnesses, and also in our intercourse with the people, that the verdict, rendered by the jury, was contrary to the law. The evidence was secured mainly through the designing and unscrupulous agents employed for the special purpose of defeating the ends of justice. At that meeting the determination was shown that the people could not submit to the surrender of their rights into the hands of midnight assassins and their powerful allies.

"The assassination of the late chief of police shows the culmination of a conspiracy. His death was deemed necessary to prevent the exposure and punishment and exposure of criminals whose guilt was being fast established by his diligent pursuit. The condition of affairs in this community as to a certain class of violaters of the law had reached such a stage that the law was almost nigh powerless to deal with them, their far-reaching was their influence in the trial of criminal cases that good citizens were profoundly impressed by the repeated and signal failures of justice. The arts of perjury and bribery seem to dominate in the courts, paralyzing and rendering powerless the ends of justice. Certainly this was a desperate situation. The public meeting was general and spontaneous in its character as well by indicating an uprising of the masses. We doubt if any power at the command of the officers would have been sufficient to overcome its intensity.

"The evidence is before us from official sources that 11 persons were killed during the attack on the parish prison. In a careful examination as to the citizenship of those men, we find that 10 of them were beyond question American citizens and another had declared his intention in this court, which act carried with it the renunciation of allegiance to his native country.

"It is a noteworthy fact that in connection with the uprising that no injury was done to other persons or property, except this one act, which seemed to be the object of the assembly at the parish prison.

"We have referred to the large number of citizens participating in this demonstration, estimated by judges at from 6000 to 8000, for it is regarded as a spontaneous uprising of the community. The magnitude of this affair makes it a difficult task to fix the guilt on any number of the participants. In fact, the act seems to involve the entire people of New Orleans, so profuse is their sympathy and extended their connection with the affair.

"In view of these considerations, the thorough examination of the subject has failed to disclose the necessary facts to justify this grand jury in presenting indictments."

THE CRY OF MILLIONS

OH, MY BACK!
STOP IT NOW,
SOON IT WILL BE TOO LATE.

I have been troubled many years with disease of the kidneys and have tried many different remedies and have sought aid from different physicians without relief. About the 15th of April I was suffering from a very violent attack that almost prostrated me in such a manner that I was bent over. When I sat down it was almost impossible for me to get up alone, or to put on my clothes, when kind Providence sent Dr. Henley, with the DRAGON KIDNEY TEA, to my hotel. I immediately commenced using the tea. It had an almost miraculous effect, and to the astonishment of all the guests at the hotel, in a few days, I am happy to state, that I was a new man. I will recommend the tea to all afflicted as I have been.

WHAT ELSE COULD BE EXPECTED.

The Huron Expositor, dealing with the subject of the failure of the TUPPER commission to Washington, observes that "it must be just a little bit humiliating for our blue-blooded knights to be forced by party exigencies to dance attendance in this way upon the hated and abhorred Yankees. It is strange, however, the humiliation that even knights will subject themselves to in order that they may cling to office."

"The foregoing," says the Vancouver Telegram, "illustrates admirably the spirit in which the Liberal press has received the announcement that the Government of the Dominion propose to establish, if they can, better trade relations than those which now exist between this country and the States." It ought to be apparent to the Telegram that the Liberal press cannot treat the antics of Sir CHARLES TUPPER other than with contempt, except that it would lay itself open to the charge of having lost its senses. The reason for this is, that the Dominion Government with reference to trade relations with the States has no steadfast policy. Sir JOHN went to the country last spring with the "old flag" in one hand and the treaty of 1854 in the other. As for himself, he declared it to be his intention to wave the "old flag" until he should be called to that country where the Liberals cease from troubling and where politicians are at rest, while as for Canada, any other variety of reciprocity than that of 1854, he declared, would be her ruin. These were the principles laid down by Sir JOHN MACDONALD. But the elections proved that the Liberals were a power that no astute politician could afford to ignore, and, as it were, before the dust of the conflict was cleared away, a movement was set on foot to secure "better trade relations than those which now exist between this country and the States." To use Sir CHAS. TUPPER'S own words, he proposed to secure reciprocity with the States on the lines of 1854, with modifications. Modifications, in this instance, meant that he was prepared to concede some points hitherto strenuously maintained by the Dominion Government. Now if the treaty of 1854 was right, if in the best judgment of Sir JOHN and his partisans it embodied the only kind of reciprocity that Canada could accede to, it is manifest that any departure from it must be wrong. Nevertheless, the Government having discovered the strength of the Liberals were not only willing to depart from it, but would have done so could it have obtained a hearing at Washington. Is it any wonder that the Liberal press scoff? What else could be expected? A Government that has no principles, that is swayed by lust for office, cannot reasonably look for compliments. The Tory press ought to accept the scoffs of the Liberal press as a matter of course, and maintain the silence of defeated charlatans.

WAYWARD CHILDREN.

A Philadelphia paper, says the Montreal Star, moralizes on the unbridled license allowed to children, which forms so curious a feature of domestic life in America. "When the century began," the writer reflects, "the reins in paternal hands were held with a curb bit; the children were painfully restained; now it is a puzzle to know whether the parents or the children govern. If the former, it is on the slack rope principle, if the latter, what is to be end of anti-patriarchal rule? The rebound from child restraint to paternal submission to child rule is indeed painfully apparent. The reason, we think, is not difficult to find. Parents in these days have lively recollections of the sufferings they endured under the old tyrannical system. Boys now-a-days have not the remotest idea of how their fathers were kept down, curbed, flogged and kept in bondage. The same may be said of the girls. The mothers of to-day, knowing how they suffered in their young days, have, perhaps, gone too far in the other direction and spoiled their children by overindulgence. This is very likely to produce another reaction. The prodigal boys and wayward girls, when they come to have families about them, will probably blame their troubles and misfortunes on too-indulgent parents, and take care their young ones shall not suffer from the same cause. The trouble is, the "prodigal boys and wayward girls" will not raise families. Unused to self-restraint, they are pretty nearly agreed that it is too much trouble to raise a family.

ABOUT BOARDING HOUSES.

In San Francisco the demand for boarding houses as opposed to flats is increasing. The boarding houses in that city are full, while flats are going a-begging for tenants. The drift of population is from the family home to the caravansary. What is the cause of this? The cause seems to be that it is cheaper to board than to keep house. When to persons of little or no family house rent exceeds the price of board for one person, it does not pay to keep house, and, as a matter of fact, persons with small means can't afford it. In cities like San Francisco, and in fact in all cities where salaries range from $20 to $30 per week, there is manifestly no economy in keeping house where the rental charged is from $30 to $50 per month, when good board, for two persons, can be had for $60 per month. What is wanted is houses or flats renting for $25 or less per month. This is the law and flat builders must needs observe it if they would have their buildings occupied.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

Since 1867 the United States has spent on their navy $432,820,762, and yet has no navy. The money was spent for repairs. During this time, that is, since 1867, Italy has built a navy for less money, and France has built hers for a sum only a little larger. England, for twice the sum spent by the Americans for repairs, has built the finest navy in the world.

The "week of self-denial," which was prescribed or recommended to the Salvation Army by its general, produced a large sum of money—probably more than $150,000. In one of the English religious journals a proposition is made to "smokers" to agree to a "year of self-denial," in which they shall abstain from tobacco for 12 months, and put the money so saved in church treasuries or bestow it upon the poor and the sick.

Ship building in the States is on the increase. In 1886 the total tonnage sent afloat was only a little over 95,000 tons. In 1887 it increased to over 150,000, and last year it jumped to 201,000 tons. Great Britain sent afloat during 1890, 1,271,000 tons, more than four times as much as the United States. Comparing the rate of increase in the States with that of Great Britain, it is figured that six years hence the tonnage output of the States will be equal to that of Great Britain.

The report of the New Orleans grand jury demonstrates three things: First, that O'MALLEY is a rascal; second, that the jury had been tampered with; and third, that it is not the intention of the city of New Orleans to indemnify Italy for the "removal" of eleven assassins. BLAINE, now, can forward to RUDINI the report of the New Orleans grand jury, with the addenda that any further correspondence on the subject will be superfluous. The lesson of the New Orleans tragedy though severe will prove salutory, but will only be complete when O'MALLEY and his accomplices shall have been sentenced to long terms of imprisonment.

MCKINLEY, without doubt, will be the Republican nominee for Governor of Ohio, and it is expected that he can be elected on the straight tariff issue by 30,000 majority.

McKinleyism has had a chance to make itself felt, and MCKINLEY for Governor of Ohio would furnish a test case of the character of public feeling in that state. Should MCKINLEY be elected by 30,000 majority, we have reasonable assurance of the popularity of protection, although, of course, no sure index of feeling throughout the United States would be afforded. The election in Ohio will be watched with interest.

Mr. SIDNEY DILLON writes in the North American Review in effect that it is none of the public's business how much railway corporations water their stock. Mr. DILLON, with equal truth, might say that getting money under false pretenses is nobody's business. The moral difference between a railway corporation that waters its stock and a gang of confidence men is so small as not to be worth mentioning. And yet there are some who are wondering what brought the Farmers' Alliance into existence? If Mr. DILLON and his confreres continue to practice what they preach, they will live to see the day when the people will make it their business to put an interdict on the over capitalization of railway stock!

A memorial was recently presented in behalf of the Russian Jews to President HARRISON, praying the President and Secretary BLAINE to "use their good offices and influence" with the European monarchs and governments to induce them to agree in international conference to "give Palestine back to the Jews," and more especially the Jews driven from the Russian dominions. Though the world is said to be growing wiser, there as yet seems no prospect of the fool-killer finding himself out of employment. The Jews would not go back to Palestine if they could. There are 7,000,000 Jews, and it is doubtful if under the most favorable circumstances Palestine would support one-seventh of that number.

Two 100-Yard Men.

Victoria was favored several days ago with two of the best 100-yard men on the continent, viz., Gibson, the English sprinter, and Anderson, a Canadian. The latter was following Gibson up and made every effort to have the race come off here, but without success. He threfore took the Kingston last evening for the Sound.

Sanderson, and another is from a bosom friend of the deceased, C. W. Hawley. Any particulars regarding the young man will be forwarded if left at the TIMES office.

Port Angeles Will Have a Railway.

General Manager C. E. Mallette has been in town for the past few days, and leaves to-night again for his home in the city on the straits, about whose future he has the warmest hopes. Mr. Mallette, up to to-day, said that Victoria holders of property had guaranteed $38,000 towards getting the railroad into Port Angeles. It is expected, though, that the sum needed, $50,000, will easily be raised here.

The Amities.

Manager Baker, who is to select the team which will compete against the Townsends on the 23rd, is waiting for the match between the James Bays and the Victoria Athletic clubs which takes place on Saturday, before making a choice. Of course he knows pretty well who is going to play, but he wants to make sure of getting the best men in the city.

A Young Life Cut Short.

Little Jennie McDonald, who was announced in these columns a few days ago as being seriously ill at St. Joseph's Hospital, succumbed yesterday and passed beyond the gates of another world. She bore her sufferings nobly with the tender and affectionate care of the good sisters. Among her schoolmates she had become a prime favorite for her gentle and sweet disposition, and she will be sadly missed.

He Returned.

It will be just a year in June when Gunner Englefield escaped from C Battery. He had been forgotten by most of his comrades in the battery, but there is one man that could recognize him, and that is officer Smith, who last evening espied the missing gunner and quietly took him in charge. Englefield pleaded guilty to the charge in the police court this morning and was ordered to be turned over to the battery authorities.

H.M.S. Warspite was on her way here but was ordered south again.

The Nymphe will come out of the drydock to-morrow.

The Pheasant is being thoroughly overhauled and refitted.

The City Clock Disliked.

The City Hall clock has made itself much disliked by gentlemen who stay out nights and go home at early dawn, while waiting wives have showered untold blessings on it. A gentleman went home very early this morning, put the bedroom clock back to 2 o'clock and told his spouse that that was the hour. The city hall clock could readily be seen from the window, but the blinds were drawn. The confiding wife of his bosom believed her truthful husband, but scarcely had he made the statement when, like a judgment on his mendacity, the clear sonorous tones of the great bell rang out 5 o'clock. There is a moral in this.

Will Petition the Government.

A report has reached the city that four American schooners are now on the West Coast obtaining Indian crews. The Victoria sealers are much annoyed about the matter, as they find it hard to obtain crews for their schooners, and think that it is a great injustice for the Dominion Government to allow American schooners to break the fishing regulations to the detriment of British subjects who contribute to the Dominion revenue. They intend to draw up a petition protesting against the action of the American schooners, and also against the Dominion Government in not at least making an attempt to stop it. The petition will be forwarded to Ottawa shortly.

A Prosperous Church.

The general meeting of the quarterly board of the Gorge Road Methodist church took place last evening, at which the financial and other reports were read and received. The financial return showed the church to be not only in a flourishing, but with a substantial balance wherewith to commence the business of the ensuing term. The question of building having been referred to a joint committee, it was not brought up on this occasion. Mr. A. J. McLellan was appointed representative to the district meeting which is to be held shortly. Mr. McLellan was instructed by the meeting to suggest to the district conference the advisability of relieving the Gorge Road church of the the responsibility of Russel station and Esquimalt, which are now one district. He will suggest that the conference be recommended to appoint a resident minister for the Russel station and Esquimalt districts.

Where the Lepers Will Live.

Mr. Teague prepared the plans for the building to be erected on Darcy Island for the lepers. It will not be very elaborate, but will make a comfortable home for the poor wretches.

Like Victoria Best.

Mr. P. Durst, president of the Brandon (Man.) Electric Light Company, has, with Mrs. Durst, been making a tour of the Pacific coast. Both Mr. and Mrs. Durst say of their five weeks' tour they enjoyed their day in Victoria more than any other place they visited.

A Substantial Starter.

The Union Pacific Railway Company have started the subscription list for the Queen's birthday celebration with a donation of $50. These are the kind of donations that go towards making a celebration a success and the example set by the Union Pacific people might well be followed.

New Temperance Hall.

The congregation of the church farm, of which Rev. Mr. Brown is pastor, are building a large and handsome hall which will be called Temperance Hall. It will be used for concerts, meetings, socials and other pleasant gatherings of which there are many in this delightful spot.

A Nice Residential Site.

Mr T. G. Tiark has this week sold one of his houses, near Beacon Hill, to Mrs. Perrin, the property realizing a good figure. The houses designed, built and sold by Mr. Tiark in Victoria and the district, are becoming so well and favorably known, both for their neat exteriors and well finished, and conveniently arranged interior that their designer, and some time owner, never has to wait long for a purchaser.

Formally Installed.

The career of the Salvation Army in Victoria has been marked by a steady growth and honest enterprise from the beginning, and their inception into the new barracks on Pandora street last night was but one of the laurels which they will win in the near future. The scene in the old Methodist Church last evening was a very gratifying and encouraging one to officers and all connected with the army. Several of the local clergy came in and offered the right hand of fellowship which was heartily received. Quite an interesting programme was gone through. The Army will now be better able to prosecute its campaign.

An Important Transfer.

A transfer of interests in the Victoria Theatre Company was completed yesterday in the purchase by Mr. J. Boscowitz of the interests of the Dunsmuirs. Mr. Boscowitz bought their shares, as well as a certain mortgage, which, with the interests of another shareholder, which he has bought, gives him a large, if not a controlling interest in the concern. It is expected that considerable changes will be made in the building, though not this year, owing to Mr. Boscowitz's intended trip to Europe. The stores on Douglas street will be renovated and made lighter and airier, while some necessary changes in the theatre itself are anticipated.

Good Stock for Victoria.

Mr. S. F. Tolmie was exceptionally fortunate in bringing his carloads of fine bred stock all the way from Ontario and landing them here in good condition. They are at present on the Cloverdale stock farm, a visit to which would amply repay any lover of good, high class stock. Besides the horses already noticed there is a beautiful seven-year-old cow, "Moonlight," bred by J. & W. B. Watt, of Salem, Ont. She weighs 1800 pounds, and is a big sweepstake winner in the east. She will shine here in the coming show. Then there is a thoroughbred bull, "Royal Knight", 14 months old, and a splendid beast. He was bred by Mr. Hunter, of Almonte, Ont. There are among the stock several Leicester sheep, pure bred, from the prize winning flock of J. Keille, jr., Shakespeare, Ont. Altogether the Cloverdale farm boasts of some first-class stock.

A Veteran Admiral.

Admiral of the Fleet SirProvo Wallis, who reached the great age of 100 years on Sunday, April 10, entered the navy in 1800, ever since which date his name has figured on the active list. During the earlier portion of his career the gallant officer saw much active service, receiving his first baptism of fire in the Cleopatra frigate, which surrendered to the French frigate Ville de Milan on 16th February, 1805, after a spirited action. Admiral Wallis will be best remembered by his connection with the celebrated action between the Chesapeake and Shannon in 1813. He was serving at that time as second lieutenant of the Shannon, but Capt. Brooke having been dangerously wounded in the engagement, and the first lieutenant killed, the command devolved upon Wallis, who brought the ship out of action, and was made a commander for his services. This action, which was undoubtedly a very gallant one on both sides has been rather over-colored by our naval historians, but the most impartial account is to be found in James' Naval History. It is not unnatural that we should prefer to dwell upon that incident of the American war, seeing that we had met with many reverses previously, not only ashore but afloat. Wallis was made a post captain in 1819, at the age of 28, and retained that rank for 32 years. He attained flag rank in 1851, and made admiral of the fleet in 1875. The gallant veteran has not outlived his fame, and most of our contemporaries have alluded to the celebration of his centenary, but he was not employed as an admiral, and to the present generation the name of Sir Provo Wallis is but little familiar with the Chesapeake and Shannon engagement. It is perhaps to be regretted that the occasion has been allowed to pass by the service without presenting the gallant officer with some form of testimonial for his brilliant services in the past.

Victoria West's New Church.

The new Presbyterian church at Victoria West, for which Mr. Cornelius J. Soule has drawn the plans, will be a neat little structure, nicely finished and capable of seating about 250 people. It will be a frame building, on a stone foundation. A school room will be built at the back.

Borne to the Grave.

The funeral of the late Wm. Fisher, J.P., left the residence of his son-in-law, Hon. C. E. Pooley, at 1 o'clock this afternoon and proceeded to St. Paul's church, Esquimalt, where solemn funeral services were performed by Rev. P. Jenns. The cortege was an exceedingly long one, a large number of old timers paying their last respects to one, who has for years been among them.

Licensed to Practice.

The board of examiners of the B. C. Medical council last evening completed the examination of candidates for license to practice as physicians and surgeons in B. C. The following were successful: Dr. C. A. Tunstall, Kamloops; Dr. E. C. Arthur, Nelson; Dr. J. Clarke, Ashcroft; Dr. H. D. Leitch, Victoria; Dr. G. W. Boggs, New Westminster; Dr. V. Ardagh, Metlahkatla; Dr. W. B. Campbell, Donald; and Dr. W. Herald, Victoria. The officers for the ensuing are: Dr. S. J. Tunstall, Kamloops, president; Dr. W. A. De Wolf Smith, New Westminster, vice-president; Dr. J. M. Lafevre, Vancouver, treasurer; Dr. G. L. Milne, Victoria, registrar and secretary.

WHERE'S THE PRECEDENT?

TO THE EDITOR:—Alberni promises to become a hot-bed of politics. If among the voters of the coming generation there are no great statesmen, there will at least be a few active politicians. Why, even the children are now taking a lively interest in public affairs. As Mr. McQuillen had expressed his intention of resigning the position of postmaster, a petition was circulated in the settlement, receiving the signatures of a large majority of the voters, asking the Postmaster-General to appoint Mrs. John Erickson to fill the vacancy. A gentleman, who has been aspiring to that position for some time, started out in quest of signatures to a similar paper, in favor of his honorable self, and as he journeyed on his way a bright idea came into his little head. He was not to be outdone for the wherewithall to make up his little roll, so going to the houses of his friends he received the names of a few dozen children, their parents in some instances enrolling the whole family from the tiny weanling by the cradle to the venerable old grand parent. For my part I like the little children, but should their say overrule the will of the people? Verily, "The child is father of the man." ALBERNIAN.

MEMORIAL SERMON.

Preached by Rev. M. L. Rugg in Honor of the Late Rev. Walter Barss.

The following is a summary of the sermon in memory of Rev. Walter Barss, delivered in the Calvary Baptist church Sunday evening by the pastor, Rev. M. L. Rugg.

Text: Amos viii. 9. "And it shall come to pass in that day saith the Lord God, that I will cause the sun to go down at noon, and I will darken the earth in the clear day." "Darkness is heaviest and blackest in contrast with the brightest light. Sorrow is saddest when it comes upon fearless joy." God, commonly, in His mercy, sends heralds of coming sorrow. Twilight usually preceeds the full midnight darkness. This is the established order. Sometimes, however, this order is reversed. Midnight darkness immediately follows noonday brightness. Twilight may come but it comes after the blackness of the night is past. It is the token of the morning. In Israel the noonday, according to this prophesy, was changed to deepest and darkest night, not by a gradual and long observed approach, but by a sudden and unlooked for crash. Afterwards came the restored glory, the morning dawn. It is not to trace Israel's history, however, that I have chosen these words of my text to-night. They present for our consideration a truth general in its application, to individuals as well as nations. It was thus the night of death came to our brother whose memory we cherish and whose virtues we would to-night extol.

Rev. Walter Barss passed from earthly labors to heavenly rest on April 5th, 1891, after an illness of about three weeks. He had been engaged in special revival work nearly all winter and the fatal termination of his sickness was doubtless due to overwork. It is fitting, that gathered here in this house which he helped to build and where he so long ministered, we tarry for a little while and briefly review that life so intimately connected with our history as a church.

This church was the first pastoral charge of our deceased brother. He came here in the summer of 1884, directly after his graduation from Rochester Theological Seminary, and for three years remained its faithful and efficient pastor. He gave to his work here all the earnestness and enthusiasm of one who in the first flush of young manhood looks upon his field of labor as a vast battle-ground where mighty forces are to be met in fierce conflict, and with an all-sustaining faith in Divine help, believing that glorious victories will be won. He came to the church as its first pastor when it was troubled and discouraged, without a house of worship, few in number and of little financial strength. He made the most of the material at hand, and as a wise master builder laid the foundation of a strong, self-sustaining church. It was under his pastorate that the present church building, which has since been enlarged, was erected. At the close of his third year's labor he resigned his pastorate on account of ill-health, and went East, where, after a short rest, he settled as pastor at Neavsick, N.Y. As his health continued to improve he took a large and more important charge at Mechanics ville N.Y. In each of these fields his work was graciously blessed in the conversion of souls and the upbuilding of the church. In last November he accepted a call to Geneva, N.Y., where his last work was done. In the few months he was permitted to labor with this strong church, he had the pleasure of witnessing a gracious revival and receiving a large number into the membership. From the midst of his usefulness God called him home. His wife and four small children survive to mourn his loss. There are some characteristics of the man we should remember to our profit. He was a man of profound convictions. Back of his active life was an unfaltering faith. He believed, therefore he spoke and acted. He was a faithful student. His books were for use and not for ornament. He was a student of men as well as books. He was a man of the people. His convictions were the result of careful study. Not blind credulity, but intelligent faith was the secret of his successful work.

"He had the courage of his convictions." What h- believed he was always ready to defend. That he sometimes made mistakes need not be said, for who does not? But the character of the man was revealad in that he was ready to change when shown his error. He profited by his experience.

He was a man of tender sympathies. Of all the characteristics of the man I find this most often mentioned. He entered into the life of his people; he felt their sorrows; he bore their trials. His own tender heart felt the sufferings of the afflicted. Nor was this sympathy mere sentiment. It was a principle of action. He was a generous man. He not only felt for the needy, but he felt where it did them the most good, he felt in his pocket. No good cause appealed to him in vain if it was in his power to aid. Ofttimes, after he had exhausted his own means, he would go to intimate friends in the church with the claims of the needy, but always first put in his own a consecrated offering. Some men's tenderheartedness goes out in mere good feeling, his in action. Generous sympathy expressed itself in his life in loving deeds. Perhaps I cannot do better than to give a few brief extracts from the testimony of intimate friends. A classmate in college thus writes these words: "Walter died on Sunday." I have no sadder words for many a day. If the class of '80 at Acadia had a member who was more a favorite than the rest, that one was Walter Barss. He was my friend, and I shall never have one more true or more valued. His sterling integrity and his genuine manliness endeared him to us all. I never knew him to do a mean act. I never heard from his lips an expression which would have been out of taste in the most refined society. My classmates were all good men and true, but when I say of him that he was primus inter pares they will all agree with me. His memory will always remain with me. I hope it will help me to do my work better. I do not say these things because my friend is gone. I have often said them. And I am glad that the last word he heard from me was a word of strong appreciation which I wrote him in answer to a kind word from him. His work was well done. One of the professors in the seminary from which he graduated spoke as follows at his funeral: "Some men are loved; some are esteemed; a few are loved and respected. Mr. Barss was both loved and respected. The one characteristic which, perhaps, more than any other, sums up my impressions of him, both as a student and as a minister, was his constant, unswerving fidelity. He was a man to be implicitly trusted. He was faithful to every task, and true to every known duty. By his superior ability, natural and acquired, by his unaffected piety, by the exalted and healthful type of his Christian life, by his manly consecration and his earnest missionary spirit, he was a help and a blessing to us all. Had his physical strength been equal to his mental and moral attainments, there is scarcely any position of Christian service, however exacting, for which he was not abundantly qualified.

"But he was more than a superior student. Religious truth was to him unspeakably precious and costly. His devout spirit led him, by a sort of instinctive impulse, to forge and to test the truth which he learned "in the fires of his own soul." Then out of his glowing yet steady experience he preached to others the truth, warm and palpitating with his own life. This was the secret of his successful ministry. He was not content with the personal appropriation and possession of the riches of Christ. He had received gladly. He gave freely. With lavish generosity and with self-forgetfulness which is easy to call imprudent, he poured out his strength for the spiritual welfare of others. This made him a true minister to his fellow man, a man greatly beloved. His chief joy was to proclaim the gospel of the grace of God. He loved this work. He was devoted to it with singleness of purpose, yet with broad and world-wide sympathies."

And still another friend thus sums up his life: Walter Barss was a genial and devoted friend, a deeply earnest and conscientious Christian, an earnest and effective gospel preacher, a faithful and untiring pastor.

It was such a man whose sun went down in the noonday of his life. Only 34 years of age and the sun of earthly life sinks out of sight in eternity's sea. Just when by reason of years, it was in still meridian, then suddenly fell the darkness of the night of death.

The sun went down in the noonday of his strength. In the full vigor of his manhood the death messenger found him. In letters lately written, and those who have seen him within a year, speak of his being the picture of health and strength.

It was also the noonday of his expectations. When one has thus reached in health the full age of manhood they may safely expect the best of life is yet to come. The dangers of youth safely passed; habits of life formed which are in accord with the laws of health; life shaped to running in the grooves of daily duty, so as best to avoid that friction which wears away one's vital powers; when one has thus crystalized his life forces into smoothest daily living he may well expect the longest endurance, and yet, just then a sudden breath of winter's tempest, and they perish like the spring time flower.

Not a great while ago I received a letter from our brother breathing with hopeful anticipations; with health restored he was looking forward to long years of usefulness. Located in a beautiful home, surrounded by an appreciative people, receiving a generous support, he was just ready to live and do the best work of his life. The whole letter was jubilant with bright expectations. But Our Heavenly Father ordered otherwise. The sun went down at noonday and darkness came in the clear day.

It seemed also to be the noonday of his success. Perhaps the best work of his life was done the past winter. Great interest attended his preaching; sinners were converted, Christians edified, and the church strengthened. It was the midday of his success. Shall there not be a long and blessed afternoon? We might so expect. But the sun suddenly goes down and the darkness came into the clear day.

Yes, it was darkness in the clear day to the large circle of friends when the tidings of the death of our brother was received. Much of the brightness of life is blotted out when such friends are called away. Darkness to the church over which he was so faithfully ministering in spiritual things, "that they should see his face no more." Darkness to the denomination of which he was so bright an ornament, that one so gifted should no more be present in their councils to give advice, and in the time of need, to stand in the battle-front in the defence of truth. But greatest darkness in that home where as husband and father his voice has been the music and his presence the sunshine of the life of wife and children. There, indeed, it must seem as if "the sun had gone down at noon," and the darkness came "in the clear day."

But there is another view of the death of our brotner which I wish to present. I do not want you to leave this service carrying the picture of a setting sun, and darkened day, and gloomy night as best representing a Christian minister's death. It only represents it from the earthward side to the natural eye. To faith-sight viewed from heavenly heights the picture is only of morning dawn and brightest day. Clouds black like midnight gloom, when seen from below as they overshadow us, when we climb above them to some mountain top and look down as they lie bathed in heaven's sunshine, seem seas of glory bright as day. Let us look from faith's mountain top down on this thick cloud of sorrow. From below we view our brother's death as darkest night because as measured in years his life was thus so brief. From faith's heights, above the clouds, we see the life in heaven's light and find it measured not by years and breaths but by deeds and thoughts. Tested thus his life does not appear so short. He reached a glorious fulness. It rounded out its alloted span.

"He liveth long who liveth well;
All other life is short and vain.
He liveth longest who can tell
Of living meant for heavenly gain.
He liveth long who liveth well;
All else is being flung away;
He liveth longest who can tell
Of true things truly done each day."

To our earthly sight his death seems dark because his work was cut short in manhood's prime, but from faith's height we behold the work going on after the worker is dead. Our brother's life has been wrought into other links and thus "taken up it shall be reproduced in multiplied power as the years pass away." No, not destroyed is his work, not even stopped, it still goes on with ever widening and increasing power and shall while time shall last. Only eternity shall measure its results. This is but the beginning of our work.

AUCTION SALES.

VIEWFIELD

J. P. DAVIES & CO.

AUCTIONEERS

Have received instructions from the PUGET SOUND AGRICULTURAL COMPANY to sell by

PUBLIC AUCTION

—ON—

Thursday, May 14th,

AT 12 O'CLOCK NOON,

At Salesrooms, Wharf street, a number of plots of land located at the Puget Sound Agricultural Company's Land at MACAULEY POINT, the finest and best situation for residences adjacent to VICTORIA, the rapidly growing Queen City of the Pacific, and undoubtedly the most desirable place at which to live on the Coast.

VIEWFIELD

forms the Western Shoreline of Victoria Harbor, commencing at the Southern boundary of C Battery Barracks, and extends along the entire water front to the South and West of Section No. 24, containing in all about 200 acres, suitably subdivided into plots of land of about an acre, more or less. The shoreline itself is of the most charming description, being a succession of indentations, bays, and points intersected with smooth, sandy beaches; affording facilities for bathing, fishing, boating and the various other pleasures of the Sea Shore to an extent seldom met with.

VIEWFIELD bears favorable comparison to BEACON HILL, the pride and joy of every Victorian. The soil is similar, and there are the same stretches of lawn-like pasture land, with occasional clumps of trees so enchanting to the residents and visitors.

VIEWFIELD, however, surpasses Beacon Hill in its views of the STRAITS OF FUCA, UP SOUND, and the lovely SNOW-CLAD OLYMPIC MOUNTAINS, which are of peculiar and surpassing beauty, and must be seen to be appreciated. It, moreover, possesses an additional charm in that a truly grand view of the City of Victoria is obtained.

VIEWFIELD has been laid out in convenient subdivisions; it is traversed by well made roads 60 feet wide, well drained by ditches on either side; it is but a short distance from Victoria City boundary.

VIEWFIELD is included in the "Keen" map of the City of Victoria, showing that this suburb has easy communication by means of the National Electric Tramway Company's cars, which pass the approach to VIEWFIELD from the Esquimalt Road.

VIEWFIELD is not subject to the prevailing western winds, Albert ead acting as a wind-break; and may be confidently expected to become one of the most fashionable residential localities.

VIEWFIELD has the advantage of having the Esquimalt Water Work system to supply it with the best and purest water on the coast, and under good pressure.

BUILDINGS—To induce the building of good residences the Company offer a bonus of 20 per cent., of the sale price of each lot to the first ten purchasers who shall within 12 months erect houses costing not less than $4000 each. Plans to be approved by their Agents in Victoria.

The proposed extension of the Northern Pacific Railway to Victoria cannot fail to greatly increase the value of this property.

The following subdivisions have been selected, which will comprise the sale of the 14th of May, namely, in—

BLOCK V—Nos. 14, 15 and 16.
BLOCK XI—Nos. 3, 4, 8, 9 and 30.
BLOCK XII—Nos. 8, 11 and 14.
BLOCK XV—Nos. 9, 11 and 13.
BLOCK XVI—Nos. 3, 5, 7 and 9.
BLOCK XVII—Nos. 1, 3, 10 and 12.
BLOCK XVIII—Nos. 1, 5, 7 and 8.
BLOCK XIX—Nos. 4, 6, 11 and 13.
BLOCK XX—Nos. 1, 3, 4 and 5.
BLOCK XXI—Nos. 1, 6 and 6.
BLOCK XXII—Nos. 7, 10 and 12.

upon which boards with printed notices have been placed in order that the public may readily see which subdivisions are to be offered at auction.

Full particulars of sale will accompany the lithographed maps, which will be ready for delivery on Saturday morning, 9th May.

The terms for payment are to be ⅓ cash; ⅓ in one year; and the balance in two years; interest on deferred payments at the rate of 7 per cent per annum. Deeds at purchaser's expense.

MEMORIAL SERMON.

Death only closes the spring-time of sowing; life's harvesting still goes on in other lives.

"Not myself, but the words that in life I have spoken, not myself, but the seed that in life I have sown, shall pass on to ages all about me forgotten. Save the words I have spoken, the things I have done. So let my living be, so be my dying. So let my name lie unblazoned, unknown. Unpraised and unmissed, I shall still be remembered. Yes, but remembered for what I have done."

Again, as we look at the earthly home made desolate by the death visitor, all seems dark as night. No more on earth shall our brother stand by the side of the wife he loved, to shield her from life's troubles. No more shall his hands be laid in loving caresses on the heads of the children dear as his own soul. Friends shall no more receive the cordial hand-clasp and be cheered by the sunny smile of welcome, or instructed by those words of wisdom. This is the darkness of the night of sorrow. But faith sees even here the brighter day of which death was only the morning dawn. Above the clouds it gets a vision of the house not made with hands, the home in the city of endless day. It spans the stormy sea of time and in anticipation takes part in the grand reunion when friend shall greet friend and broken households be united in that home where friendship's ties shall ne'er be severed, and loving hearts be never pained by sad farewells. Yes, by faith there is a brightness to the cloud of death. As one after another goes to the unexplored land, it begins to seem like home. It makes it seem real and brings it so nigh that we can sing

"Oh, that home of my soul in my visions and dreams its bright jasper walls I can see
Till I fancy but thinly the veil intervenes
Between that fair city and me."

From the earthly point of view all connected with death must seem dark, mysterious and strange. Why should God permit these troubles. Why should the good and useful die while the vile and useless live. Why should affections blossom but to blight beneath the icy touch of death? Is there aught of compensation for the pain this trouble brings? Oh! we cry, let some star of hope shine through the rifted cloud. Sometimes the darkness seems lifted from our sorrows; night and dawn seems coming to our soul and then the clouds still closer dawn until the last faint star of hope has disappeared. Not from the earthly visions shall the mystery be solved. Only from the heavenly heights shall things be truly seen. By faith we may, as in a mirror, see God's purposes unfold and something of the divine plan know. For perfect sight and knowledge we must wait.

"Gods plans, like lillies, pure and white unfold,
We must not tear the close shut leaves apart;
Time will reveal the calyxes of gold.
And, if through patient toil we reach the land
Where tired feet with sandals loosed may rest,
Where we shall clearly know and understand
I think that we shall say God knew best."

And so mid tears, it may be we say to friends in death's dark hour, "good night" and while the tear still lingers faith smiles upon us through the gloom and hope whispers to our breaking heart, you shall in a brighter world, with joy, bid them "good morning."

National Educational Association.

The annual convention of the National Educational Association of the United States for the present year will be held at Toronto July 14th to 17th, and as it will on this occasion be of an international character, it promises to be the most successful meeting of the series. Most of the railroads have agreed to give half-rates, plus $2.00 membership fee to all who attend the meeting, this rate being open to the public generally as well as the teachers. Toronto people are making great preparations to welcome and entertain the visiting teachers, and numerous cheap excursions are being arranged to all important points on the great Lakes, the St. Lawrence and the sea-side, after the convention, which will afford to teachers the best opportunity for enjoying their summer holidays they have ever had. The official bulletin, containing programme for the meeting, railway arrangements and all other particulars, is ready, and will be sent free on applying to Mr. H. J. Hill, secretary local committee, Toronto.

We Understand Them so Well.

"Let other people do as they see fit my dear Norah; you and I will stick to Diamond Dyes, we understand them so well. We have used them for five years and have never had cause to regret our choice. Some of our neighbors have suffered losses, and wasted time by using some of the new dyes recently introduced, while we have always been very successful. No change for us Nora." "You are quite right mother; Diamond Dyes are indeed unequalled in the world; and only to-day I heard of two of our friends who solemnly declared, that for the future they will use only the Diamond.'

Amelia has pimples, and sores in the head.
From humors internal her nose has grown red;
She's a boil on her neck that is big as a bell,
But in other respects she is doing quite well.

And pa has dyspepsia, malaria and gout,
His hands with salt-rheum are all broken out;
He is prone to rheumatics that make his legs swell,
But in other respects he is doing quite well.

And ma has night sweats and a troublesome cough,
That all of our doctors can't seem to drive off;
She wakes every night and coughs quite a spell,
But in other respects she is doing quite well.

There is nothing like philosophy to help one to bear the ills of life, but in the case of this family what is most needed is a good supply of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It would cleanse Amelia's bad blood, cure pa's ailments, and check ma's cough. The Golden Medical Discovery, by its action on the liver, cleanses the system of impurities. It cures humors, ulcers, boils, scrofula, salt-rheum, erysipelas, and all kinds of sores and swellings. The only guaranteed blood-purifier.

A Minute a Day.

A minute a day devoted to taking a dose of Burdock Blood Bitters will cure any case of constipation, dyspepsia, biliousness, or bad blood, and may save weeks of sickness and dollars of loss. There is nothing better than B.B.B.

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria.

Mother.

When the Japanese princes were in Philadelphia at the time of the Centennial exhibition an American gentleman, addressing the son of a high officer of the Japanese empire, asked him, "what do you think of your mother?"

"You are the first person in America who has asked that question," said the Japanese as his eyes filled with tears and his voice manifested his emotion: "why do you ask it?"

"Because," said the other, "the reply to such a question throws a strong light on the domestic life and family ties of a people, as well as on the personal character of its individual citizens, and on the morals and customs and government of the nation."

"Well," said the Japanese, "I will tell you. Since I left home my mother has every week, regularly written me a long letter, telling about everything in the family and at home; and every week, in the same way, I have written to her, telling her of all my movements, and of what I see and hear and do.

"If it were not for these letters I should long ago have been so homesick as to have gone back to see her and be with her. She is always on my heart." And his earnest and tender tones confirmed and impressed what he said.

When he was further asked if such was the general feeling of children to their parents among his acquaintances and in the empire, he replied, that so far as his observation extended, among the better classes, it was.

What do you think of your mother?" is a question that shows what is the character and influence of the mother herself; what the love and training she has given to her children; what the respect and honor of children to their parents; what the position of woman in the family and in society, and what the preparation of a rising generation to be good men and women, good citizens and supporters of all that is good in the society, government and institutions of a country.—Youth's Companion.

Purify The importance of keeping the blood in a pure condition is universally known, and yet there are very few people who have perfectly pure blood. The taint of scrofula, salt rheum, or other foul humor is heredited and transmitted for generations, causing untold suffering, and we also accumulate poison and germs of disease from the air we breathe, the food we eat, or the water we drink. There is nothing more conclusively proven than the positive power of Hood's Sarsaparilla over all disease of the blood. This medicine, when fairly tried, does expel every trace of scrofula or salt rheum, removes the taint which causes catarrh, neutralizes the acidity and cures rheumatism, drives out the germs of malaria, blood poisoning, etc. It also vitalizes and enriches the blood, thus overcoming that tired feeling, and building up the whole system. In its preparation, its medicinal merit, and the wonderful cures it accomplishes Hood's Sarsaparilla is Peculiar to Itself. Thousands testify to its success, and the best advertising Hood's Sarsaparilla receives is the hearty endorsement of its army of friends. Every testimonial we publish, and every statement we make on behalf of Hood's Sarsaparilla may be relied upon as strictly true in every respect.

THE "SOUTH FIELD" COAL is now used by all the Leading Steamship Lines on the Pacific.

THE "NEW WELLINGTON" COAL, which was introduced early in the present year, has already become a favorite fuel for domestic purposes. It is a clean, hard coal, makes a bright and cheerful fire, and its lasting qualities make it the most economical fuel in the market.

The several Mines of the Company are connected with their Wharves at Nanaimo and Departure Bay, where ships of the largest tonnage are loaded at all states of the tide. Special dispatch is given to Mail and Ocean steamers.

THE ABOVE WORK IS THE OUTCOME of the recent Moral Reform Movement which took place in the Capital City of British Columbia, and which played such an prominent part in the late Municipal Elections held there. The author discusses the various phases of the question, and has endeavored to deal with the subject in a manner that will be interesting and some practical benefit to every reader into whose hands his book may fall. The position taken by the Ministers of the Christian Churches in regard to the Municipal Election above referred to is also fully dealt with, and although the criticisms may seem severe to some, the author hopes the conclusions drawn and the desire he has shown to do a service, no matter how slight it may be, to the weak and fallen, will meet with the approval of all lovers of justice and humanity.

Taken For a Tooth Wash.

The following is a good story, which gives the actor, Barrymore, the credit of having scored a paint upon Mme. Modjeska:

"It will be remembered that the earlier appearances of that lady were heralded by a cabalistic announcement whose burden was 'Modjeska! Modjeska!' The first that many people knew of this talented actress was gathered from these exclamatory announcements that bristled on the dead walls. Barrymore was a member of Modjeska's support, and in time some little disagreement over a matter of detail in their relations brought Greek against Greek. Modjeska argued with the refractory spirit to make him submit to her will and expressed some surprise that he did not seem more grateful for the opportunity that she had offered him of associating his name with hers in a professional way. The madame, however, poured her pleadings into deaf ears, and Barrymore finally peremptorily closed the interview with 'Madame, I can see no reason why the considerations which you mention should induce me to give way in this matter. I should be pleased to have you understand that I was known as an actor from Maine to California, when people took you for a toothwash.'"—Lowell Critic.

From the Pacific Coast.

We quote from a letter recently received from Miss Eleanor Pope, Port Haney, B.C. "For sore throat, coughs, croup, bruises, etc., Hagyard's Yellow Oil is the best thing I have ever used."
